

I am voicing my opinion about trying to reduce the requirements in the Wisconsin No Call List. Why is it when the people speak, and in full force, others feel they need to override it. I do not want the no call list requirements to be reduced. I can finally sit down to a meal without the phone ringing with telemarketer calls. Please keep it as it is. Thank you, Pamela Reed